

Easements and Eminent Domain Table of Contents

I.	Overview	1
A.	Definition of Easement.	1
B.	Distinguishing Easements From Licenses and Leases	2
1.	Attributes of an Easement	4
2.	Attributes of a license	4
3.	Attributes of a Lease	5
4.	Profit a Prendre	5
II.	Creation of Easements	7
A.	Written Contract, Reservation or Grant	7
B.	Creation of Easements by Certified Plat / Dedication	9
C.	Creation of Easements by Implication	9
D.	Creation of Easements by Prescription	11
1.	Understanding Adverse Use	12
E.	Creation of Easements by Necessity	15
1.	Common Law Way of Necessity Abolished	15
2.	The Private Road Statutes - Wyo.Stat. § 24-9-101	16
3.	Condemnation for Way of Necessity W. S. §1-26-815	17
F.	Creation of Easements By Irrevocable License / License Coupled with an Interest	18
G.	Creation of Easements by Estoppel	21
H.	Creation of Easements by Condemnation	24
III.	Characteristics of Easements	24
A.	Location and Dimensions	24
1.	Vague or Undefined Easements are Void in Wyoming under Wyo. Stat. § 34-1-141	27
B.	Easements Characterized as Appurtenant or Gross	29
C.	The Scope of Use of an Easement	31
1.	Access to Easements and Implied Rights of Use.	32
D.	Easements as Exclusive or Non-Exclusive	34
IV.	Construction and Interpretation of Easements	35
A.	Express Easements	35
B.	Missing or Incomplete Terms	36
V.	Conflicts Between Easement and Fee Interest	38
A.	Servient / Dominant Tenements.	38
B.	Expansion of Use / Increased Burden.	41
C.	Surface Easements for Exploration and Production of Minerals	43

D.	Wyo. Stat. §§ 30-5-401–410, Wyoming’s Split Estate Legislation	47
1.	Notice Requirements - Non-surface Disturbing Activities	47
2.	Notice Requirements - Surface Disturbing Activities	48
VI.	Conflicts Between Competing Easements	50
A.	First in Time, First in Right	50
B.	What Constitutes Interference.	51
VII.	Enforcement of Easements	52
A.	Temporary Restraining Order / Injunction	52
B.	Quiet Title and Declaratory Judgment	55
C.	Wyoming Underground Facilities Notification Act - Wyo. Stat. § 37-12-302	55
VIII.	Termination of Easements	55
A.	Written Agreement or Release	58
B.	Merger of Fee Interest and Easement.	59
C.	Common Law Theories	59
1.	Abandonment	59
2.	Estoppel / Detrimental Reliance	60
3.	Adverse Possession	61
D.	Extinguishment Under Eminent Domain	62
IX.	Eminent Domain	63
A.	What is Eminent Domain	63
B.	Distinction Between “Public Use” and “Public Purpose”	63
C.	Who Has The Right To Condemn Property	64
D.	What Property May Be Condemned?	65
1.	Real and Personal Property	65
2.	Public Property	66
E.	Other Sources of Taking Power	66
1.	Way of Necessity	66
F.	Federal Authority to Condemn	69
G.	Access for Pre-condemnation Surveys	70
H.	Preliminary Requirements to Condemn	71
1.	Public Interest and Necessity Require the Project or the use is Authorized by the Wyoming Constitution	72
2.	The Project is Planned or Located in the Manner that Will be Most Compatible with the Greatest Public Good and the Least Private Injury	73
3.	The Property Sought to be Acquired is Necessary For the Project.	74
4.	Good Faith Negotiations	75

5.	Public Entities Must Pass a Resolution Authorizing Condemnation	78
6.	Requirement of Certificate of Public Convenience Convenience and Necessity	79
I.	Procedure in Eminent Domain Cases	80
1.	The Complaint	80
2.	The Answer	80
3.	Immediate Possession	81
4.	Two Stage Proceeding	81
5.	Valuation: Formal and Informal Procedure	81
6.	Date of Valuation	82
7.	Appraisal not Required	82
8.	Right to Request Jury Trial	82
9.	Appeal of a Condemnation Case	83
J.	Standards for Measure of Just Compensation.	83
1.	Recognized Appraisal Methodology.	85
2.	Highest and Best Use.	85
3.	Compensation for Partial Takings / Easements	87
a.	Increase or Decrease in Value Before Date of Valuation	92
b.	Increase or Decrease in Value of Remainder After Taking	92
c.	Concept of the Larger Parcel	92
d.	Use of Comparable Sales for Partial Takings	93
4.	Measure of Compensation for Crops	94
5.	Measure of Compensation for Improvements.	94
6.	Measure of Compensation for Goodwill	94
7.	Measure of Compensation for Temporary Takings	94
8.	Reclamation Requirements	94
K.	Improper Appraisal Methodology	95
Appendix 1
	Wyoming Split Estate Legislation – W. S. §§30-5-401 – 410	97
Appendix 2
	Permitting Oil and Gas on Split Estate Lands
	Onshore Oil and Gas Order No. 1	107
Appendix 3
	Wyoming Eminent Domain Statutes
	W. S. §§1-26-501–817	121

Appendix 4

Rule 71.1, Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure

. . . 149